As we anticipated in our last report, Money is reported as working easier in New York and eastern cities, and we look to quote ease.

In our local market Money will be in demand to handle the produce, and we have no doubt will rule close for the next sixty days. We hear of large orders in the market for flour, corn, pork, and other articles. One house has an order for 100,000 bushels of corn, and to move the grain, that no doubt will arrive, must keep our banks very active; but they have been looking for this movement and preparing for it.

Local discounts are very difficult to be obtained, but about all the produce paper offered is taken at the usual rate of interest and exchange.

As will be seen by the reports of our banks they are strong and doing a fair business, with a very fair deposit for the season. The City National Bank we learn, pays five per cent. dividends to stockholders, and has a reserve of about 30 per cent. We are not advised what dividends our other chartered institutions make, but have no doubt their profits are satisfactory to their stockholders.

Government Bonds are firmer, and have advanced about 1/2 per cent.

Gold remains about as last reported.

Our banks report eastern Exchange more plenty, and currency not quite as plenty as last week.

We did not hear of any sales of City Scrip or County Orders. We look for the latter to advance, as tax-paying is at hand.

We heard of one sale of Gas stock at 50 cents. We understand parties from the east have been endeavoring to get contract of one of our local insurance companies, but did not succeed.

We heard of two sales of Bank stock, but could not learn the price.

COMMERCIAL.

CAIRO, ILL., January 6, 1869.

The week opens with a fair amount of general business doing which is however restricted by the blockade of Freight on the Mobile &amp; Ohio Railroad—Cotton. Many orders for cotton are received, and some have been awaiting shipment by land. It is hoped the suspension may be but for a day or two, and shipments will be sent forward as fast as possible.

CORN is in good shipping demand. There is a Southern order here for 100,000 bushels Corn in bulk at Chicago prices, the same to be shipped in small quantities, and will probably be delivered in orders of five times as many more. There are also large buyers here for Corn in sacks. Receipts being limited we have only to report 116 sacks White Corn sold at $6, and 225 sacks Yellow corn sold at 50¢, sacks furnished by buyer.

OATS are in good demand for shipment, two cars in new barrels sold at 80¢ and 90 sacks in old barrels.

HAY is in good inquiry but receipts being extremely light, we hear of no round lots being sold.

PROVISIONS are extremely quiet, with no quotable changes to note. 50 lbs Macc Pork and 800 lbs veal sides sold at private terms.

FLOUR is in good demand, but the absence of shipping facilities makes it difficult to sell. Sales comprise 200 lbs. Fine at $5 50, 150 lbs Superfine at $6 00, 225 lbs X at $7 00, 250 lbs XX at $7 00 to $8 00, 250 lbs XXX at $8 00 to $9 00, and 150 lbs choice Family at $10 50 per barrel.

FEED is higher, and demand exceeds the supply. Sheep are now at $25 00 per ton.

WHEAT is in good memory for shipment to mills up the Ohio river, which is a new feature in trade here. Nine cars No. 2 Spring sold at $1 25 per bushel, two cars No. 1 at $1 35, and four cars choice No. 1 at $1 40 per bushel.

CORN SALT is in fair demand and selling in lots within the range of our quotations.

BUTTER is in large supply and prices are inclined to be easier. Four boxes choice Northern will sold at 28 cents per lb., which is now about the top price.

EGGS—six boxes sold at 30¢. The market is dull.

POULTRY is plenty and dull. Three crows old chickens, 10¢ each, and 10¢ each. Some extremely mild unit quotations for dressed cannot be relied on.

GAME—market is demoralized by the warm weather. Ten doz. Squirrels sold at 50¢, and 6 doz Rabbits at $1 00. Deer carcasses have been sold at 10¢ per lb.

VEGETABLES—Fifteen bush. common Red Potatoes sold at $1 25 per bushel. Cabbage worth $2 15¢ $3 00. Turnips 25¢ bushel prime and choice sold at $3 00 per bushel.

FRUIT—The trade is restricted by causes previously named, but prices are firm.

FREIGHTS are unsatisfied, and every boat makes her own rates, which however generally vary little if any from our quotations, except perhaps on round lots some concession may be made.

Weather mild and delightful, and the Ohio river is rising rapidly at this point.
